This was arguably the most popular part of the trip primarily because it was so unexpected. It is a tubing (large innertubes) hill that has been in the Quebec City area for over 20 years. The Club visited it during the mid-1980's and it was fun then. It is much larger now and is still fun. It is open from 10:00 a.m. – 10:00 p.m. during the winter depending on weather.

RECOMMENDATION

Do you recommend our Club consider this resort?	<input type="checkbox"/>	Explain	Not enough room for most ski clubs.
What is the maximum #nights for a stay at this resort? (may select more than one choice for a range)	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/> 1 <input type="checkbox"/> 2 <input type="checkbox"/> 3 <input type="checkbox"/> 4 <input type="checkbox"/> 5 <input type="checkbox"/> 6 <input type="checkbox"/> 7 <input type="checkbox"/> More	Explain	One is likely the most anyone would stay here, and only for the novelty value.
Provide a narrative of why we should or should not consider this resort	The Ice Hotel costs $200/per person/night. So, that's $400 per couple. And for that, you have the privilege of sleeping in a hotel made solely of ice and snow.

ADDITIONAL COMMENTS

There are 36 rooms in the hotel. There is also a Grand Hall, a playground, an Ice Bar, and Ice Club, an exhibition room, a chapel, a spa and sauna, and two sets of rest rooms. The latter items are not inside the hotel or they would melt it.

You may not want to stay overnight in the Ice Hotel, but visiting it and having a drink is very attractive. It costs about $15/person to get in, but reservations have to be made well in advance. It's very popular.

People who want to stay overnight must make reservations about 9 months in advance. It books up quickly. Seriously. It does.

Attraction: Carnaval

Carnaval is a mid-winter festival that has been celebrated in Quebec City for decades. This trip was scheduled during the middle of the 3-week festival. It is definitely the time to be in Quebec City, unless, of course, you want reasonably priced hotels. But even then, most of the events are scheduled on weekends, so if you stay in the city during the week, you can find nice hotels at reasonable prices. If you're there during the middle of the week, there are many exhibits and displays that are interesting to see. For example, the ice and snow sculptures are available throughout the three week period.

This is the program for the festival. It opens up to be significantly larger. This is only a small part of it.

This is Bonhomme Carnaval (Goodfellow of the Carnaval), the symbol of the festival. To get into most of the venues, you must be wearing this zipper pull. A real-life Bonhomme Carnaval joined us during dinner at the Marriott. He is about 8' tall and remains in costume throughout his meet and greet. We also were presented with the waist sash. It's nice to wear, but isn't required like the zipper pull.
