Chilean, Argentinean
& Spanish Wine Tasting
641 North High St. (Short North)
Wednesday, March 25 - $35
7:00 – 9:00 pm
Sign ups begin at the March 4th meeting
Limited spots – don't miss out

In essence, this will be a dual tasting, offering the opportunity to sample 15 wines from Chile, Argentina and Spain as well as a wide variety of tapas offerings (Spanish for small plates suitable for sharing), for which the Burgundy Room is renowned. These wines are less well known in the U.S. but as a result represent some of the finest values available. For those of you familiar with the Burgundy Room's tastings, our tasting will have an increased emphasis on the tapas offerings, as a balance to the wines. Detailed tasting notes will be provided and when you find wines you like, they will be available for purchase that night at State Minimum pricing.

The Burgundy Room is known for its extensive wine offerings including: 60 wines available by the glass; over 200 other wines by the bottle; and number of wine flights each consisting of four glasses of related wines. Each of the numerous tapas items on the menu is available with a tasting of a wine the Chef and Wine Steward recommend. For directions, the wine list, the menu or more information the web site is: www.burgundyroom.net.

This will be a very popular tasting with limited spots available. The Refectory tasting was almost completely sold out the first night of sign-ups so don't let this opportunity slip by.
