TALL TALES OF STEAMBOAT '99

The picture party for the Steamboat trip will be held on Wednesday, Jan. 26th from 7:30-9:30 PM at Debbie Parris' house, 4150 Stoneroot Dr., Hilliard. Snacks will be served, but bring your own beverage. Directions will be available at the January meetings or you may call 921-9342 to receive the directions on voice-mail during that week. You can tell who the trip participants were by the big grins on their faces. The party started on the flight out. Rumor has it that DM's thumb prints are all over the Victoria Secret's catalog he read on the way out. Despite nearly record low snowfall, the skiing conditions were remarkably good. Steamboat did a great job grooming each day and the weather gods were favorable dumping 4 inches of powder on the slopes two different nights. The condo arrangements at The Ranch were superb--everyone loved the door to door van service. We had only a single injury--unfortunately on the first morning--but KD didn't let that spoil her fun and EN showed his support by staying away from the slopes. What troopers!! I saw a record number of new skis and boots on the slopes and at least 3 ski clubbers bought new skis out there. With the new shaped skis, skiing technique was sharp all around and those of you without are going to face some tough challenges from those of us who have traded in our stiffboards. Apres ski was especially enjoyable. Word has it that one group (including an unnamed board member) literally left their mark at the once famous cat house--now turned restaurant. The young (and young at heart) were also seen dancing at Disco Inferno night. Rookie and first time skier DS actually had enough energy to grab an Afro wig from the bus driver and lead the party on the last night. All proof that you don't have to be a veteran skier to have a great time on an early trip out west.

QUEBEC CITY MILLENNIUM TRIP

The bus carrying twenty-four CSC'ers cruised through fortified, snow-covered Quebec City and entered the gates surrounding the luxurious Chateau Frontenac. Candy "Bar" quickly learned the hotel was adamant about its "no skis in the hotel" policy. After recovering from the realization that we were actually lodging at the most photographed hotel in the world, we headed out to dinner with the burden of choosing where to dine from the endless selection of fabulous restaurants. The French Canadians obviously know how to eat--the restaurants were all fantastic! Our Canadian hosts graciously switched from French to English when we sheepishly asked, "Do you speak English?" The city was a dream come true for those who like to "shop till they drop." Mink coats and fur hats were as abundant as ski parkas and headbands.

The skiers boarded the bus each morning and visited three different resorts--Mont St. Anne, Stoneham and Le Massif. R.J., formerly a ski instructor in Colorado, was kind enough to give some pointers to others. The weather cooperated with new snow and mild temperatures during our stay. We talked Kittyhawk into going to Stoneham on Saturday, and we caught a lift with them since it was our scheduled day off. Although we had scheduled a free day to give people time to tour the hotel, the city and the countryside, several people chose to ski every day.

We rang in the New Year with the Kittyhawk, Dayton and Indianapolis Ski Clubs. The elegant eight-course dinner was topped off with champagne at midnight followed by flaming Baked Alaska. The highlight of the celebration was when S.M. popped the big question as we cheered in the new year. It was obvious C.J. had accepted his proposal because her eyes sparkled as brightly as her engagement ring. Quebec City continued the Millennium celebration with a great fireworks display on New Year's night on the St. Lawrence River in front of the Chateau Frontenac. At dinner that evening, M.B., P.M. and K.J. conquered "the devil." We continued the fun into Sunday with a hot tub and champagne party at the hotel.

We had a minor injury the first day of skiing and went injury free until the last day when both K.C. and K.M. had crashes and had to be wheel chaired through the airport for the return flight; both are recuperating at this time and we hope they are back on the slopes soon. Terri Williams and Nora Ferguson wish everyone health, wealth and happiness in 2000!

PICTURE PARTY:

Friday, January 28th, at 7:30 at Nora's house (5704 Shadowbrook - 457-7385). Please bring your photos and an appetizer to share.

Whew! Over 360 quests!

That has to be the biggest and best Christmas party the club has ever had. Thanks to everyone on the social committee for all the work that goes on behind the scene prior to the party, like organizing the place, getting prizes, selecting the food, finding the entertainment, making and printing tickets and flyers, selling the tickets, and passing out flyers.

Thanks to all the volunteers that sold tickets at the door. Big thanks to the following for donating door prizes for our club.

✓ CHECKS PREFERRED!! ✓

Simple as that. It's another way you, the members, can help keep Ski Club costs down.

Every time the Columbus Ski Club processes your transaction via a credit card, the Club incurs a hefty fee for it's acceptance. This "added hidden cost" adds up to thousands of $$$ by year end. We can only keep dues at the current rate and trips at low prices if you help us keep costs down. So when you see the sign, "Checks Preferred" at the Treasurers' table, please have your check book ready and keep the credit card in your wallet.

Thank you for your support, Otis.
